Girl Scouting is at its best when families take part in the Troop. Without adequate support, it is very difficult for a Troop to exist. You can help make our Troop a Success! Let us know how you can help. Please check at least one item!

- Your house – Let the troop use it for meetings, parties, or other needs . . .
- Help with paperwork – Make copies, fill out forms, help count money . . .
- Nut parent – Attend Training and Coordinate the troop nut sales . . .
- Cookie parent – Attend Training and Coordinate the troop cookie sales . . .
- Be a driver for field trips – must be registered as a GS Volunteer to be covered by GS Insurance
- Chaperone – accompany troop on trips, outings, etc. – must be a registered GS volunteer
- Make telephone calls – Notify troop members / parents on any need to know . . .
- Treasurer – manage troop finances along with Troop Leader's assistance . . .
- Organize outings – research trip information, make reservations, travel permits . . .
- Other – find resources for supplies, help with shopping, errands, meeting prep . . .
